

Biographical Sketch

Dorothy S. McAdory

Dorothy Scruggs McAdory is a native of Birmingham, Jefferson County, Alabama and life-long resident of the City of Irondale, Alabama.

She is an active member of Faith Missionary Baptist Church, Bessemer, AL and serves as Church Administrator and Director of Christian Education.

She is a member of the faculty at the Birmingham-Esonian Baptist Bible College, Recruiter and Course Facilitator for Congregations for Public Health, University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) and the BEBBC Ministry Certificate Program and Chair of Citizens Night of the A. L. Bratcher Lecture Series; Certified Center for Disease Control Community Health Worker; O'Neal Comprehensive Cancer Center Community Health Advisor; Certified Dean and Instructor, Sunday School Publishing Board, National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc.; Service in the Mt. Pilgrim Baptist District Association include Lecturer and Teaching Assignments in the Certificate of Progress Program, Corresponding Secretary,. Service in the Alabama Missionary Baptist State Convention, Inc. includes appointment to the Election Committee and Chief Administrative Assistant to the Dean of the Alabama Baptist State Congress of Christian Education.

President and Executive Director of Faith Aftercare Educational and Enrichment Center, Inc. (501(c)(3))/Bessemer-West Jefferson Reading Academy for Rising Third, Fourth and Fifth Graders. This is a grant funded Summer Adventures in Learning Program (SAIL). This program is partnered with the United Way of Central Alabama.

Past affiliations include: President Emeritus, State of Alabama, International Association of Ministers' Wives and Ministers' Widows (Interdenominational). Senior Citizens Advisory Board and Whistle Stop Volunteer, City of Irondale, AL; Sister-to-Sister Program, United Way, Birmingham; Coordinator, New Testament Studies Division, National Baptist Congress of Christian Education; Administrative Assistant to the Dean, 2016 Dean of the Year and Congress Support Award, Alabama Baptist State Congress of Christian Education, past Chair of the Mt. Pilgrim Baptist District Association Classification Committee and Event Coordinator for the 2016 Legacy Awards; Dean of Faith Missionary Baptist Church

Christian Leadership School; Teacher, Discovery Clubs of Alabama and Community Health Worker “With Every Heartbeat is Life Project.”

She is married to Reverend R. L. McAdory, mother of three sons and grandmother of seven. Today, she continues to be strengthened by her favorite childhood scripture: “Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God,” Matthew 5:8.